Stella Feliberti is a 19-year-old violinist from Virginia and is currently studying at the Boston Conservatory at Berklee under the tutelage of Dr. Katie Lansdale. Her musical studies began at age 3 with Megan Van Gomple, whom she studied with for 15 years. Growing up, she participated in a variety of musical ensembles across Hampton Roads.

Over the summers, Stella has participated in a variety of summer festivals. This summer, Stella is attending the Green Mountain Chamber Music Festival and is studying with Bayla Keyes. This fall, Stella will be entering into her sophomore year at the Boston Conservatory, working on her Bachelor's of Music in Violin Performance.
